Sanjay Ghodawat International School: One of the Premier boarding Schools in Pune

Perched amidst the serene hills of Rawade Village, Mulshi, Pune, Sanjay Ghodawat International School (SGIS) is a co-educational boarding school that offers unique blend of academics and holistic development. Spread across an expansive 50-acre campus, the school provides a peaceful environment that fosters learning and growth, away from the city's hustle and bustle. With its modern infrastructure and comprehensive facilities, SGIS has quickly earned recognition as one of the finest schools in India.

A Vision for Holistic Education

SGIS Pune reflects the vision of a dynamic leader and philanthropist, Sanjay Dhanchand Ghodawat, whose dedication to quality education has been instrumental in establishing the institution. Supported by the futuristic leadership of Shrenik Ghodawat, Secretary of the school, and Trustee Vinayak Bhosale, SGIS has embraced a global outlook while staying rooted in local values. The school is guided by the expertise of seasoned educationist and Director Sasmita Mohanty, who has significant experience in nurturing quality education in residential schools. The much sought after school SGIS Pune, is headed by erudite Principal Dr. Pourushasp Karkaria.

The school's mission is to create inspired minds that contribute meaningfully to society.

By balancing academics, cultural activities, and life skills,

Sanjay Ghodawat - President Sanjay Ghodawat University

SGIS aims to shape global citizens with integrity, resilience, and respect for diversity. Its curriculum includes some of the prestigious international programs such as Cambridge (CAIE), International Baccalaureate (IB), and the American Curriculum, offering students a well-rounded education that emphasizes critical thinking and intellectual growth.

Quality in Academics, Sports, and Beyond

In a short span, SGIS Pune has garnered multiple accolades, including the Academic Excellence Award from Cambridge University in 2024 & Best school in Infrastructure by Navbharat Times. The school's commitment to fostering all-around experience is reflected in its achievements in academics and sports, with students excelling in over 20 disciplines under the guidance of professional coaches. Facilities like swimming pools, state of the art sports fields, and provisions for unique activities such as horseriding and rifle shooting ensure that students receive ample opportunities to hone their talents.

The emphasis on holistic development extends beyond academics and sports. SGIS promotes hands-on learning through research projects, theme-based teaching, and activity-oriented approaches that encourage independent thought. It also organizes theater productions, exhibitions, and field trips to enhance students' understanding of real-world issues and social responsibility. The school actively sensitizes students to gender issues and nurtures their ability to manage conflicts, helping them become compassionate and socially aware individuals. Outreach programs, including trekking, bird watching, and charity initiatives, instill empathy and a sense of giving back to society.

A Global Outlook and Strong Community Values

Global engagement is a cornerstone of the SGIS philosophy. International student exchange programs and collaborations with educators worldwide foster a spirit of cross-cultural understanding and respect for diversity. The Alumni have a strong foothold across the globe and are placed in reputed institutions like Manchester Metropolitan University, UK, LaTrobe University, Australia, North Carolina University, USA, Monash University, Australia, University of Surrey, UK etc.

SGIS is also home to a diverse teaching community, with educators from across India and abroad contributing to its dynamic learning environment. Regular professional development programs ensure that teachers stay updated with global best practices, enabling them to provide relevant and impactful education.

SGIS Pune is the latest jewel that adorns the crown of the renowned Sanjay Ghodawat University at Kolhapur and its sister institutions that nurture more than 20000 students with world class education. This legacy reflects a commitment to offering educational excellence that seamlessly integrates global perspectives with local ethos.

The school's carefully curated curriculum is designed to inspire creativity, encourage critical thinking, and instill lifelong learning habits. From academics to co-curricular activities, every aspect of SGIS is aimed at helping students reach their full potential and emerge as responsible citizens who contribute positively to the world. Thus, Sanjay Ghodawat International School stands as a vibrant community where education transcends traditional boundaries, shaping students not only for academic success but also for a meaningful and fulfilling life.
